COOLIDGE CLOSETED ENTIRE MORNING WITH HIS CABINET

Christian's Method of Resigning Comes in for Considerable Gossip;
Coolidge Not Notified.

'CAL' UNDISTURBED

Temporary White House, Hotel
Willard, Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.— President Calvin Coolidge held an informal and unofficial cabinet meeting in his suite here today.

Secretary heads of the various government branches came and discussed
the pressing problems of their departments. Their call was the first of the day and occupied the entire morning.

Washington, Aug. 11.—President
Calvin Coolidge came back to Washington today to wield his power as Chief Executive for the first time in shaping the new policies of the Nation.

Unrestricted now he will go to work to mold his Government to his own ideas and face his first test in
office.

The first matter to be settled is
the resignation of George Christian as personal secretary to the President, a matter which goes under the surface of the political situation
deeper than the mere appointment of the new Secretary.

Christian's resignation was expected but it was not expected in the
unprecedented way in which it came.
All precedents indicated that Christian might ordinarily have called upon Mr. Coolidge in a few days and formally resigned his post. Instead
he made the announcement to the
newspapermen as soon as the funeral services were concluded.

It is believed Christian was not pleased over the transfer of Major Ora Baldwin, personal friend of
Mrs. Harding from his Chief of Pa-
lice post at the White House and the appointment of Col. Sherrill as military aide to Mr. Coolidge.

Mr. Coolidge believes the entire situation arose because of a misunderstanding, and he probably will attempt to right the matter as far as
is within his power.

Edwin T. Clark as personal secretary will now probably fill the office

Members of the old cabinet who
were summoned by the President are:
Secretary Weeks, Secretary Hughes,
Secretary Hoover, Secretary Wot,
Postmaster General New and Secretary Walla.

The first formal meeting of the cabinet will be held next Tuesday, it was decided.

Mr. Woodrow Wilson went into the anthracite coal situation very
fully and told the President of the present railroad facilities as his department found them.

Hughes discussed the Mexican recognition conference now in progress
in Mexico and touched on the World Court, though no effort was made to go deeply into the question. Hughes
is not very optimistic over progress
in the Mexican conference, it was indicated.

Wallace brought to the President
the farm situation and talked railroad rates.

Weeks spoke on the army situation
and work told the President of Mr.
Harding's discoveries in Alaska.

Between the calls of cabinet members George Christian, secretary to President Harding, came but the President was busy and Christian
said he would return later. He will then discuss his resignation an-

ARREST WOMAN CARRYING 108 QUARTS OF WHISKEY

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Arrest
of a woman bootlegger with 108
quarts of whiskey in a sedan car was announced by state police today in reporting enforcement activities for the past week.

A total of 72 arrests were made. In
the haul 178 quarts of champagne
were seized.

Katherine Kelly and Mr. and Mrs.
Chick Larson and daughter of Cur-
wensville shopped in town.

London, Aug. 11.—Chancellor
Cuno tendered his resignation to President Ebert, who refused to accept it, according to Central
News dispatch from Berlin today.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—Eleven persons
were killed today in wild disorder and
food riots in the vicinity of Aachen,
according to advices from that city.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—An infantry company with machine guns is guarding
the residence of Chancellor Cuno today, the fourth anniversary of the establishment of the German republic,
when bloody clashes between workers and police were reported from Hamburg, Bremen, Leipzig and Kiel.

One worker was killed and many injured in fighting with the police at Hamburg, while two were killed at Ratibor.

The threat of a Soviet government
in Germany was heard from the lips
of a communist deputy in the Reich-
stag yesterday and President Ebert
immediately issued a proclamation
warning radicals to refrain from circulating hand bills or posters, holding meetings or making speeches thought
to endanger public order.

Morning found the order disobeyed
as crowds took advantage of "Constitution Day," which is the anniversary
of the adoption of the Weimar Constitution, which made Germany a republic, to express their disapproval of
the present government and the food
and money shortage.

Berlin, August 11.—Rioting and bloodshed marked Germany's "Constitution Day" in at least three cities of the Ruhr today.

Reports indicated that twenty persons were dead and scores wounded in food riots induced by hunger and hopelessness.

The most serious disorders were in Aachen, a suburb of Borken, where 11 persons were reported killed
and many wounded during wild riot-
ing. The city was without money and unable to pay employment bills. Mobs congregated in the main town, Bork-
scheid.

Hamburg reports one dead and
many wounded. In clashes
police and unemployed two were killed
at Ratibor. Disorders also were threatened in Mulheim where indus-
trials warned striking workers they
would declare a lock-out if the men
did not return to their posts.

WINBURNE PASTOR ON VACATION

Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Thomdaughters Mary Almada and Helen Gwendolyn, and son Stephen Ben-
min, of Winb. nc. are spending a part of their vacation at Chautauqua
Lake, N. Y., from where they report
attendance at a great national moral to President Harding attended
by over 8,000 people from all parts
of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Row have gone to Salona for the week-end.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—State
Treasurer Snyder must defend himself as a private citizen and not as a State Officer, Attorney General Wood-
ruff, advised him in a letter made
public here today following a writ of
mandamus, which will be heard here
next week. Snyder must pay counsel
retained by him to defend his
position, out of his own pocket, and
not out of any appropriation by the Treasury Department, according to Attorney General Woodruff.

Snyder advised in the letter that
on Monday the Attorney General will
ask the Court to fix the date of argument not later than August 16.
This was to be done, Woodruff said
today, to expedite matters which
have already been delayed unnecessarily.

The opinion to Snyder stated,—
as an official of the State you have
no power or right to spend the money
of the State in litigation with the Commonwealth. If, in the capacity
of a private citizen, you desire to
have the validity of any statutes tested, the law provides a method for so doing. In such a case, however, it would be at the expense of yourself
and associates.

Woodruff stated he would oppose
the payment of any counsel fee. The acts of 1915, which provides a method
of redress by calling upon the Attorney for assistance is cited by Wood-
ruff as the proper course for any department head to take when legal
questions arise.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Court
proceedings more far-reaching than
the action now pending against State
Treasurer Snyder, involving payment
of millions of dollars to state-owned,
state-owned institutions, was foreshadowed today by Auditor General S. S.
Lewis.

Attorney General Woodruff is asked
to be a party to "amicable" proceedings in the local court in order to
have "conflicting provisions judicially
construed" by the Auditor General in
a letter addressed to Woodruff today.

HARDING NOW RESTS BESIDE MOTHER WHO LED HIM ON TO FAME

Mrs. Harding Leaves on Special for the White House; Her First Trip
Without "Warren."

GOING TO 'PACK UP'

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 10.—Harding
of Ohio, is home tonight sleeping
time away near the mother on whose
knee his first childish dream of greatness was prattled.

Marion, O., Aug. 10.—Another
special train left Marion tonight for Washington. It was the same except for one coach that left San Francisco one week ago; the same
that slowly crossed the continent to Washington and after a stop there of
less than 24 hours, ran on to its destination here.

The entire nation knew it by name
as the "Harding Funeral Train." The missing car has been taken away.
The body it brought home had been laid to rest. It departed from Marion this evening, never again to be used intact.

Still there rode in another car tonight a grief-stricken woman. She, too,
was the same who crossed the continent to the capital and on to Marion, bearing herself bravely, assuring anxious friends that "she was all
right" and there was no cause for them to worry. This was the first time in the memory of Marion citizenship that Florence Harding had
gone away without "Warren."
Mrs. Harding will return soon to her home, temporarily, to reside with
her friends and ultimately to return
to her own home, now leased to friends. Mrs. Harding insists they shall not be disturbed, but shall remain in her residence in accordance with the terms of the agreement she
made with them.

There was none here or on the
train who could tell how long Mrs.
Harding would remain in Washington. She did not know. All that could be said was that she would
return as soon as she could adjust
her affairs at the White House and
have the personal effects she and
Mr. Harding had learned to love during their residence there removed to some other abode, possibly to a storage house.

ing lonely years with courage and

An "old fashioned" Firemen's Convention is what all signs point to for next week in Clearfield. During the war period and for the past two or three years attendance at the annual Firemen's Conventions has not
been what it ought to be but the vigorous publicity methods of the local
committee coupled with the attractions to be provided are going to turn the tables this year and put the annual Firemen's convention back to
its proper place.

First announcements sent out by
the local committee, were just a little disappointing in results and did
not elicit much of a response from
the companies far away from Clear-
field but the committee was not satisfied and kept right at it. Last evening they had the complete satisfaction of noting by reason of the
communications received that their
work was bearing fruit and now look forward to a truly wonderful convention.

First came the word from the Hope
Company of Philipsburg that they
would be here practically to a man
with them a band of fifty pieces.
Then, Reliance of Philipsburg phoned in and said
"we're coming too." "Our band is not so big, only thirty pieces, but it
has quality and you'll know we're
there." DuBois is coming too. District Secretary Johnson advises that
the DuBois department will be here
and that they are now arranging to bring the B. R. & P. shop band.
Punx' Lindsey and Johnsonburg
had already said they were coming,
not only for the convention but to
camp at the park for the week. Patton is coming, so is Osceola, Hout-dale and Winburne. Jersey Shore has been heard from and while arrangements are not yet complete, the Jersey Shore Jaddies hope to be able to bring the Jersey Shore Shop band.

If Jersey Shore comes, that means
that Tyrone and Bellefonte will join
the procession. Nothing has been heard from Portage but that city
has a habit of coming in and copping
the drill prizes and dollars to dough-
nuts they will be on the job.
Philipsburg is going to bring some
of their equipment and no doubt
many of the others will too.

The city is taking on a gala appearance. The professional decorat-or, held up somewhat by the Harding mourning period, is now free to
go ahead and he is working wonders.

Market street from Third to Front
and Second street from Cherry to Locust will form the Court of Honor
and just now the decorator is concentrating on this square. This morning the business men's committee
called on the County Commissioners
to request them to doll up the Court House properly and no doubt this
will be done, otherwise it would be a
sore spot on an otherwise healthy
looking public Court of Honor. The Court House will stand a lot of
beautifying to make it look like the rest of the buildings on the Court of Honor and it is hoped that the Commissioners will do their full share.

HEALTH CONDITION REMAINS GOOD IN ALL PARTS OF CITY

Secretary Gaulin of the local Board
of Health, in his weekly statement regarding health conditions, says that
but one case of communicable disease
was reported to the Board for the seven days ending today. During the same period the quarantine was lifted
in two cases, leaving but nine cases
of contagion under quarantine at the present time.

These nine cases are located as follows:—

- First Ward: None.
- Second Ward: Diphtheria 1, whooping cough 2.
- Third Ward: Diphtheria 1.
- Fourth Ward: Whooping cough 5.

tional Bank book and hopes the finder

MEMORIAL SERVICE HERE ATTENDED BY RECORD BREAKING CROWD; ALL SECTS AND CREEDS PAY HOMAGE

An audience of more than three thousand Clearfielders gathered at
the Clearfield Park Friday afternoon
at 4 o'clock to participate in the memorial exercises for our late President Warren G. Harding, whose funeral occurred at his home in Marion
Ohio, at that hour.

The general committee representing all the churches of the town
which has been named by Burgess
Kittelberger had prepared an interesting program for the occasion and
the same was carried through ex-
pediently and without a hitch of
any kind. The service was highly impressive throughout, the assemblage
showing marked devotion and reverence.

John F. Short presided over the meeting. The entrance on the West Side of the exhibition building was
converted into a speakers stand,
having been properly decorated and
arranged for the occasion. This arrangement allowed the people to
mass in front of the stand, chairs and
benches being provided for the people near the stand, while the rising
ground immediately beyond the road
was utilized by the people unable
to get seats. The porches at the rest room nearby also accommodated
quite a number.

The Clearfield Italian Band
opened the exercises with a "Memorial March," excellently rendered
while the American Legion Band followed with the "Serenade Funere."

Following this music Chairman
Short took up the memorial program
and announced Rev. M. A. Ryan of St. Francis church, who delivered an impressive invocation.

The assemblage then joined in singing one of the late President's favorite hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee," led by the band.

Following this hymn Rev. W. L.
Cruthers of the Baptist church delivered an eloquent prayer in which
he asked intercession for the illustrious dead and the continued favor
of the Almighty upon America, her
government and her people.

Rev. W. E. Gibbons, of the Allen
A. M. E. church, then arose and read
the 23d Psalm and Micah, 6:8 verses
favored by President Harding, the
latter verses being those touched by
Mr. Harding's lips when he took the oath of office as President.

Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, of

Trinity Methodist church followed
with a reading of Revelations 21:1-8,
scriptural passages comforting to deceased during his life time and message of the Master.

Chairman Short then introduced
Hon. William I. Swoope, as the first
memorial speaker. Mr. Swoope,
whose abilities are well known along
oratorical lines, made a particularly
inspiring address, in which he excelled President Harding for his
breadth of vision, greatness of heart
and his constructive statesmanship.
Mr. Swoope's address was particularly able and brilliant and made a
profound impression upon his hearers.

At the conclusion of Mr. Swoope's
splendid effort the band again led
while the assemblage sang "Land
Kindly Light."

A. H. Woodward, Esq., was then presented by the Chairman and he
eulogized the dead leader of our nation in choice language. He spoke
of the early life and struggles of the deceased, touching upon his rugged
homely, steadfastness of purpose
and ability to do the right in all
things affecting the best interests of the nation he governed so well. Mr.
Woodward's address was eloquent
throughout and elicited much favorable comment.

Rev. E. C. Reeve of the Presbyterian church followed by Mr. Woodward with a characteristically eloquent prayer after which the band
led while the assemblage sang
God bless our grieving land!
Firm may she ever stand!

Through storm and night:
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do Thou our country save
By Thy great might!

For her our prayer shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On Him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guardian with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry,
God save the State.

The benediction by Rev. Richard
Allen Hatch of St. Andrew's church
brought the services to a close and
the assemblage quietly dispersed to their homes to the strains of the parting
song from the "Trumpeter of Valkingen" rendered by the American Legion Band.

Christian Resigns As Executive Secretary To The President

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 10.—George
B. Christian, secretary to Warren G.
Harding, as United States senator,
and as president, announced tonight
that he had submitted his resignation
as executive secretary to President
Coolidge.

Mr. Christian made his announcement soon after he had returned
from the final services for his dead
chief.

"I entered public life with Warren
G. Harding," and I leave it now that he is called away," he said. "For nearly nine years I worked beside
him, and my present sorrow is somewhat assuaged by the feeling of satisfaction of having been permitted
to serve a great president, a most humane and considerate chief, and
the finest friend it has ever been
given a man to have."

Mr. and Mrs. James McCarthy and daughters have returned to their home in Lock Haven after spending
the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bumgarner on Daisy street.

Milford, Pa., Aug. 11.—Gov-
nor Pinchot celebrated his 56th
birthday here today at work
with the members of his "official"
family, including Attorney General George Woodruff, Secretary

King, who, as members of the Executive Board, are assisting in

France Sees The Collapse Of German Opposition In Ruhr As Result Of Uprisings In Germany

Paris, Aug. 1.—French statesmen
force complete collapse of German
resistance in the occupied areas as
the result of the debacle of the march and the disturbed political situation.

The crash must come, Paris feels,
because here is the Ruhr, one of the
most highly industrialized regions in
the world with millions of manual
workers paid in nothing but help of practically worthless paper. The workers cannot buy food with marks.
They have nothing to sell except
their own labor. They cannot trade
and barter as the farmers can. The specter of starvation moves.

Farmers in the occupied area will
not sell their products no matter
how many bales of paper are offered.
Sugar, butter, coffee, eggs cannot be
procured. Keeping pace with the food shortage industrial paralysis is
spreading as the dealers in the great
industrial labyrinth feel the first pangs of hunger. Many portions of the Thyssen and Krupp works closed
this week.

George W. Brett and son Leroy, of Daisy street, motored to Connant
Lake today and will send Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Calvin Eckley and his daughter, Mrs. F. E.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. L. C.

Here is just one of the things that Volstead can properly be charged with. "The proprietor of a number of hotels in New York and other cities announces that he will have chaplains for meditation and prayer conducted in all his hostelry. From time to time special services will be held in the chapels, but the principal purpose is to provide a place where the guests may go quiet thinking at any hour.

The Highway is the longest road in the world. It is more than 4,000 miles long, connecting New York with San Francisco through eleven States.

Get a photograph of your fiancée's feet before you marry her, prospective bridegrooms have been advised by Dr. E. E. Hayden, former President of the National Association of Chiropodists, addressing the annual convention of the organization in the Hotel Astor.

These photographs are an index of character," he said. "The high-heeled, pointed shoe is worn by shallow-minded women, such as jazz dancers and women who care more for amusement than they do for the staid things of life. Beware of girls of this type.

But the modern girl with normal feet is an exception, Dr. Hayden added. He said that of 500 students at Kansas University, whose feet he examined, only two had perfect feet and one of these was a Chinese. Among half as many New Hampshire State College students he couldn't find one with perfect feet, he asserted.

The speaker warned especially against girls with low arches. She is "crust and exacting," he said, this type of foot predominating among ancient Romans and Attila's Huns.

Every outstanding incident in American history brings to mind the capacity of our people, regardless of race or creed, for thinking in the mass and the ability to meet any condition with a solid front. That solidarity, which makes this nation the greatest nation it is, stands out as a beacon to all the world, in every crisis, to the same one of war or of peace, and never yet in the life of this nation has there been even the semblance of a division among

If you bring in your watch to me and say, "Bill, fix that so it will run," you may rest assured that when I tell you that it is in good running order that it will keep the kind of time you want your watch to keep.

I have fixed up some pretty bad cases of watch disease and some of them the owners thought were well nigh hopeless. But this experience that I have had, I know about all the troubles that a watch is heir to and know how to repair them.

Americans. There is no need for any man or set of men attempting to usurp or direct the patriotism of Americans by shouting from the housetop "I am 100 per cent American." That is but unnecessary lip service and generally is a cloak for hypocrisy and cant. Every thinking American is 100 per cent American, and, if such a thing was possible or necessary, would be even one hundred and one per cent American.

The truth of the above was apparent all over this broad land yesterday, when a sorrowing people gathered in each of their home communities to do honor and pay the last sad tribute to their President and leader. Elected as a representative of a party or part of the people after a stirring and arduous campaign less than three short years ago, he was the President of all the people and at his death, by the gentleness of his nature, the kindness of his great heart and his efforts to do the most good for the greatest number, had so grown in the affections of all of the American people that his untimely passing away brought genuine sorrow into the hearts of all our people, in whose service Warren G. Harding gave up his life.

All classes, all creeds, all Americans, met to express their sorrow at the passing of this good man. It was a sublime sight and once more demonstrated that all Americans are 100 per cent Americans and that such has been and always will be the case.

To Relieve Canaries of Vermin. Canary birds are often covered with vermin. They may be relieved of them by placing a clean white cloth over their cage at night. In the morning the cloth will be covered with minute red spots so small that they can hardly be seen with the naked eye. These are the parasites a source of great annoyance to the birds.

World's Longest Poem. The longest poem on record is Spenser's "Fairy Queen." It is only a quarter the length of the original plan, yet it is as long as Homer's "Iliad" and "Odyssey" and Virgil's "Aeneid" put together, and more than three times longer than Milton's "Paradise Lost" and "Paradise Regained" in one.

Using Watch as Compass. With a watch flat in the hand, the hour hand pointing toward the sun, the point on the circle half way between the hour hand and XII will be directly south in the northern hemisphere and directly north in the southern hemisphere.

Harding Now Rests

Today prepared to gather up the body of her husband and to weave them into a new design. She arrived here from Marion at 9:30 a. m.

She reentered this morning the empty White House and collected her personal belongings, every one of them to remind her of the husband she had left at Marion cemetery. Just as there were no hysterics or self pity in her demeanor during the death and burial, so there will be no hysteria about her final days in the White House.

George D. Christian, Jr., her late husband's secretary and Harry Barker, the secret service man assigned to her when she entered the White House, will stay with her to help until the work of removal is finished.

When she is through at the White House, Mrs. Harding may stay for a time with friends near Washington or she may go to the home of her brother, C. B. Kline in Marion. For the next six months she will most likely be in Marion from the large circle that knew her.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

A regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. F. C. Irvin yesterday evening.

It was opened by Mrs. Runk reading a poem and a prayer. A circular from Mrs. George, state president, was then read stating on our active program of the law enforcement movement, also giving dates of national convention at Columbus, O., September 4-13.

Thanks of Governor Pinchot to State W. C. T. U. for assistance in raising money for enforcement, was read by Mrs. Chorpennig, who also read of a huge living bouquet presented as a birthday gift to Miss Anna A. Gordon from a large number of the state, representing the large number gained in membership during the year.

"Total Abstinence in the White House" was read, telling of the banning of liquor from the table by the late lamented President Warren G. Harding.

Election then took place, resulting in retaining the officers of the last year. Preparations were made for the entertainment of the county convention which will be held in Clearfield the 23rd and 24th of this month.

Mary, Dorothy and George D. Welch, who spent their vacation with their grandparents, have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. I. H. W. Kline and son Jack, have returned home after a month spent with relatives and friends in Elmira, Horsehead and Buffalo, N. Y.

VIRGINIA GOOBERS

Lots of people ask us what "goobers" are. Why, man alive, they're just great big, hand picked, Virginia peanuts, toasted as we only know how to toast them.

We get them here, we store them where it's dry and cool and then toast them as no one else knows how to do.

Then we serve them to you on Saturday nights, piping hot.

CONVERTING STEEL INTO FORD SPRINGS REALLY A BIG JOB

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 10.—Converting of four car loads of steel into 18,000 springs every day is one of the interesting manufacturing operations of the Ford Motor Company at its Highland Park plant and the department at present employs 600 men to bring this production.

Before acceptance from the mills samples of the steel are made into trial springs and these are placed in a special apparatus where they are subjected to 90,000 continuous vibrations of 1,850 pounds to each stroke. In actual use, it isn't often that auto springs receive such enormous pressure, and the quality of genuine Ford springs is strikingly shown by the fact that so-called "Ford" springs made by outside companies break before 20,000 of these vibrations.

Once the metal is found by test to be of standard quality, manufacture begins. The steel is heated in furnaces to 1,500 degrees Fahrenheit and the leaves are formed and hardened in oil in one operation. Following this they are tempered in nitrate at 875 degrees Fahrenheit, then they are graphitized and are ready for use.

Chautauqua Ticket Sale Lagging; Special Meeting Has Been Set

"Only the most strenuous efforts on the part of every ticket seller and a generous response by the citizens of Clearfield before noon Tuesday next will save our Chautauqua from embarrassment," said S. C. Kirk, chairman of the ticket committee of the Clearfield Chautauqua at a meeting of the district captains last night at the Y. M. C. A. It was made plain by him that season tickets cannot be obtained after that time and that those getting single admissions put a burden on the guarantors.

An advance representative of the Swarthmore Chautauqua was present. Walter J. Millard, who explained very clearly the rule that is rigidly adhered to for the seating of children.

"All unaccompanied children," said he, "must take seats on the aisles and not on the front rows. Even for children with their parents there must be one grown person for every three children if they wish to occupy the front rows. The junior leader, and the law and order commissioners who are elected by the children themselves at Junior Chautauqua, assist in seeing that this rule, which is made for everybody's benefit, is observed."

Mr. Millard also read letters from other cities on the circuit which declared that the program, which will be presented here, is the strongest and best balanced ever offered.

Tickets can be obtained from one of the banks or from one of the following drug stores: Irwin's, Bloch's and Stewart's.

The superintendent of the Chautauqua is expected to be present to get acquainted and outline his work.

MARTHA AND MARY

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:38-42; John 11:1-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Mary hath chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her."—Luke 10:42.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Two Loyal Friends.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus and Mary.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—True Friendship shown by Martha and Mary.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Home Problems Illustrated by Martha and Mary.

In this picture we see Martha engaged in preparing a meal for Jesus. In her effort to make the best preparation for her honored guest, she became distracted. She not only was troubled with much serving but she found fault with Mary for not helping her. She even censured the Lord for permitting such neglect. Martha has had her followers in all ages. Every church has its Marthas. The busy, troubled and busy women who are engaged in service for the Lord with little patience for those who sit at the feet of Jesus. Mary sat at Jesus' feet and heard His word. She had taken her turn in the service as the word "also" would imply. She did not neglect service, but had the keenness of perception to discern that communion with the Lord was more prized by Him than the preparing of a meal. Both of these women loved the Lord and it is impossible to say which loved Him more. In the days of sunshine in this home, Mary made the good choice of communion with her Lord.

The next scene which occupies our attention is the occasion of the resurrection of Lazarus. In the time of the sickness of Lazarus, these sisters had sent for Jesus. Jesus loved the members of this household, and yet, strange to say, He delayed His going unto them. Martha met Him with rebuke, saying that if He had been there her brother had not died. This carried with it the censure for His delay under such trying circumstances. This act of Martha called forth some marvelous teachings on the resurrection. After this interview with Martha, she came to Mary with the message of a call from Jesus. Mary was composed and remained in the house until called for. She immediately responded to this call and used the identical words of Martha, but instead of rebuking Him, she mingled His words of sympathy with hers of sorrow. The reason she had such composure in this dark hour was that she had patiently sat at His feet and listened to His word so that she understood the meaning of the tragedy. The difference then in the behavior of these two women in this dark hour was doubtless due to the fact that in the days of sunshine Mary had entered fully into fellowship with the Lord and that Martha had lost this grace through her fretfulness.

III. Jesus Entertained at Bethany. (John 1:1-9.)

At this supper appeared Mary, Martha and Lazarus, who was raised from the dead. Doubtless this supper was in grateful appreciation of His help and sympathy in the days of their trial. At this meal Martha was back at her old business of serving, but it would seem with an untroubled disposition. Mary took a pound of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped them with her hair. This was a token of her great love and devotion. She was back in her accustomed place at the feet of Jesus. With the keen intuition of true love, she brought her costliest gift as an evidence of her love. She thus anticipated His death and burial, knowing that she could not minister unto Him then. The Lord received this act of love at its full value. Against the fact of Lazarus' death, Jesus defended Mary. He declared that it was no more a waste than the ointment placed on the bodies of the dead in embalment. In fact it was the doing of this very act beforehand unto Him. Only Mary of all His disciples had really understood Jesus when He said He must be crucified and raised again the third day. The announcement of His crucifixion brought unto the others dismay. They refused to believe in the resurrection, but Mary came to anoint His body for burying.

Progress Editorial For Women

By FLORENCE DAVIES

A little old lady with a bundle under her arm walked uncertainly up to the information desk at the public headquarters of one of our big cities, and asked the way to the post office.

She was at the end of the road. The next turning was to be "Over the hills" as the old saying goes.

For over sixty years she had known nothing but hard work. And now the little she could do was not enough to earn the scant reward of other body's demands. Her husband had died years before, her daughter was married and poor, and she herself was too weak to travel farther alone. Friends, if any, had little to give and her proud old spirit wouldn't ask.

But the little old lady never started down that last hill. Any brusque deputy sheriff who happened to hear her story took her aside. Perhaps his keen blue eyes saw a fleeting picture of what his own mother might some day, but for better fortune, have had to suffer; and so he bundled her off to his home, there to play "Grannie" to his youngsters and help his wife about the lighter household tasks.

The young, helpless as they may be, have at least a chance of brighter days ahead. But to have played the long game through and then find oneself alone and defeat in the end, is indeed a heavy sentence.

In one city in the United States there are five or six old people who take each month a check from the cashier of a bank. No one can tell then who will be the check holder over will. At the time of inquiry the check never fails.

It's the way one man I know is doing his sharp of his y's burden "Every one," says this man, "is pline to give something to others not for personal glory, or gain, but just to help those less fortunate."

Imagine what it would mean to lives of some very poor old people to have even five or ten dollars drop down mysteriously each month, to supply some of the little extra necessities which they might have known when younger.

Are all the old people who know how fairly happy and contented they are just checking out of the

The death of President Harding has had its effect on politics of Pennsylvania during the week. The effect has been both direct and indirect. The direct effect has been to slow up political processes because the politicians did not feel it fitting to engage in campaigning at this time, and to take some of the important figures in state politics out of Pennsylvania in connection with the funeral ceremonies. A few of those who went to Washington include Senator Pepper, Governor and Mrs. Pinchot, Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton and many of the congressmen. The absence of so many notables naturally slows things up.

The indirect effect of the late President's death has been to revive discussion of additional honors for Senator George Wharton Pepper, with consequent bearings on the political complication which will inhere in our status quo until such time as the situation which arose when Governor Sproul named him as Senator is ironed out.

There has always been a feeling that some day or other Mr. Sproul will go to Washington as United States Senator from Pennsylvania. It was known to be his ambition for some years. The death of Senator Penrose created the vacancy while Mr. Sproul was still Governor. He was urged by some of his advisers to resign as Governor and let himself be appointed Senator. But he refused to get into any such mess, and appointed George Wharton Pepper, who has since been regularly elected.

Pennsylvania politics feels reasonably certain that if some situation arose which would decently and honorably remove Mr. Pepper from the office of Senator, Mr. Sproul would be a candidate to succeed him. This feeling may or may not be justified by the aspirations and inclinations of the two men, but it nevertheless exists and must always be taken into account by those who are observing the national aspects of Pennsylvania politics.

That this situation should be brought into the foreground as a result of the death of President Harding is inevitable. It comes most directly in connection with Attorney-General Daugherty. Mr. Daugherty was a close personal friend and political mentor of President Harding. In the days when he was first appointed and the appointment was being objected to from some sources, the personal relation of the two men was regarded as an iron-clad guarantee Mr. Daugherty would retain his post. Later he became ill and has recently been a very sick man. Again it was said that the personal bond between him and President Harding was the only thing that kept him from resigning and withdrawing from public life.

Now that President Harding is dead, it is quite generally believed that Mr. Daugherty will not continue as Attorney-General longer than is necessary to help President Coolidge during his first months in office. In that event, of course, there will be a new Attorney-General.

They are already gossiping about Senator Pepper for the post. He is a brilliant lawyer of national reputation and has been politically friendly with Mr. Coolidge and the Republican party leaders.

Mr. Pepper has done nothing to substantiate this gossip. What he has said has rather tended away from its acceptance as face value than toward it. It is by no means certain that he would relish giving up his seat in the Senate to enter the Coolidge cabinet as Attorney-General.

It is only a possibility if it deserves to be rated even that high, but it has its place among the speculations of our little group of political philosophers. If Mr. Pepper should go into the cabinet, thus creating a vacancy in the Senate, a most interesting political contest would be precipitated in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Sproul's ambition would presumably be brought to the front. There might well be others who would contest it. An appointment would have to be made by Governor Pinchot. Would Governor Pinchot appoint Mr. Sproul? If he did not, would Mr. Sproul oppose whomever he did appoint at the election that would have to be held in the first even-numbered year after the vacancy occurred, in other words, next November?

ber, if we are to bear specifically on the present question.

Mr. Sproul himself evinces no more excitement over the situation than does Mr. Pepper. In fact, he is planning to move himself from the scene altogether. For several weeks he has had passage for Europe engaged and is scheduled to sail within a few days. The dramatic events at Washington have made no difference in his plans and he will sail as per arrangements. So for the present we might as well let him take this particular problem out to sea with him and let it sink below the horizon as soon as his ship does.

In these paragraphs last week we conferred together over gossip of difficulties the Pinchot administration was having with some of the department heads at Harrisburg. It did not look when those words were written as though that situation would come to public notice within a week. Yet such has been the case. The department head involved is not the one whose case was discussed in some detail, but another.

It is Dr. Charles H. Miner, Secretary of Health, who has happened to "break" the story of difficulties within the administration.

Early in the week Governor Pinchot went into the department and found four clerks at work, others present but not laboring in the vineyard, and still others not yet arrived to report for duty. Although it was then fifteen minutes after the hour set for the department to begin business for the day, the Governor caused this fact to be known through the channels of the press. A day or two later Dr. Miner caused another fact to be known through the channels of the press. This fact was that he did not approve of the Governor's visit and the Governor's having let the facts of his visit be known through the channels of the press. Although he would not discuss the matter, it became known that he was considering the step of handing in his resignation.

The matter of the Governor's visit is not the one at the bottom of this affair. Dr. Miner is one of the department heads who has figured in the gossip that was recounted in these paragraphs last week.

As long as the situation is what it is, we may be with propriety a little more specific in regard to him than would have been fair in the remarks of a week ago. Information which has been fair in the remarks of a week ago. Information which has been in my hands at that time was to the effect that Dr. Miner was not been satisfied with the conditions that have surrounded his administration of the Health Department for some time.

He re-entirely summed up his feeling when he said to a medical colleague, "I haven't the same chance to make a record that my predecessors had." The trouble goes to the same source that is making difficulties in other departments, an interference with personnel and freedom of decision by the Governor, often inspired by one or another of his most intimate advisers.

That sort of thing, if it exists at all, is apt to be widespread and therefore, if your department heads are not mere political hangers-on, satisfied to draw their salaries and let someone else run their work, it is bound to come to a head sooner or later. In this instance, the sooner it does, the better. For then it will be corrected, a new dispensation obtained, and everyone live happily thereafter.

As far as the great battle of the code is concerned, the week started promptly with action. On Monday Attorney-General Woodruff entered his mandamus suit against State Treasurer Snyder in the Dauphin County Court. The action is to compel Snyder to return the payroll requisitions he has held up to the Auditor-General. If that is done, under the Act of 1911, the Governor can act as umpire between Mr. Lewis, who has approved them, and Mr. Snyder, who has not. The Governor would cast his vote in their favor and then they would have to be paid.

The suit was entered Monday but Wednesday came and Mr. Snyder returned to his home in Pottsville without having been served. The Attorney-General intimated he was not pleased with the Sheriff's delay in serving the papers and would take steps to hasten action.

But the papers will doubtless be returned shortly and argument heard next week. Mr. Snyder has retained an imposing array of counsel, including ex-Lieutenant Governor Beidleman, and once the case gets into the courts it will probably have a long history, perhaps leading up to the Supreme Court for final adjudication. In the meantime the Governor has borrowed money to pay the salary-less employees. So why should anybody worry?

Man, Look at the Way It's BUILT

Why have thousands of families chosen Jewett Six Sedan? More car for the money—that's why! Marvelous performance—that's why! A six at the price of a four—that's why!

Jewett Six Sedan is the sturdiest car of its class or price, whether four or six. All metal body—no flimsy makeshifts to disappoint you later. Husky 6-inch deep frame, strongly braced. Paige-Timken axle fronts and rear. Match such construction anywhere for $1495. You can't.

A big, full 50 H.P. Paige-built motor fills the hood—249 cubic inches piston displacement. This means Jewett Sedan is the "Closed Car with Open Car performance." No wonder Jewett's power attracts buyers. Match, if you can, Jewett's "pep" at $1495—or $2000!

No better oiling system in ANY car—and Jewett's high pressure, hollow crank-shaft oiling gives double usual motor life. Two gallons of oil per minute are forced through all main and connecting rod bearings. This gives you at $1495 a sedan that will endure with the best.

As a final test—let your wife or daughter drive. Watch a woman put the Jewett Sedan through its paces. Watch her smile at her unaccustomed ease of mastery. And think—only $1495, f.o.b. factory!

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet on Monday evening, August 13th, in the Legion rooms. A large attendance will be expected as arrangements will be completed for holding the lawn party at the residence of Mrs. Dan Irvin, River street on Wednesday evening, August 22nd.

Mrs. Harry Bilger left on Thursday for Plumville, Indiana county, to spend the week end with old home folks.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hudson, accompanied by her son, William Hudson, came down from Olean, Thursday afternoon for a visit with her parents, Lew J. and Mrs. LaPorte. The lad will remain with his grandparents and attend the winter session of public school.

Harry Kittleberger and family who started almost a week ago for an auto trip through the eastern part of the state, have returned home well pleased with their outing. The Hicksville band of Altoona has been secured and will furnish music and fun at Curwensville on Labor Day. Negotiations are pending for the presence of several other good bands to be on the grounds that day, one of which will be possibly the girls' cornet band of Cherry Tree or the Wetzel girls' band of Milesburg.

Jack Gray, a mine superintendent, who is educated up to his profession now located at Carnwath, was a Curwensville visitor (where he formerly resided), several days this week.

Arrangements have been perfected by which there will be another big Yellow Dog meeting on Monday evening, at which time a large class of mongrels will be initiated into dogdom and assigned an active part to be taken by them for further advancing the success of the big and interesting program to be pulled off at the Park on Labor Day.

Curwensville will have almost a week of Chautauqua, commencing Monday, Sept. 2nd.

Do not forget that Rhoda Rebecka lodge is going to have a great picture at the Strand on the evening of the 15th. "The Arabian Nights" is a picture well worth seeing. Each purchaser of a ticket will be entitled to one chance in the drawing off of a new Maxwell car.

TO PREVENT AIRPLANE FIRES

John Gose and Others of Committee on Aeronautics Invent Fireproof Gasoline Tank.

Having lost his right leg and suffered severe injuries caused by a burning airplane in the World War, John Henry Gose of Washington, D. C., a member of the American Legion's national committee on aeronautics, with other aviators, who had received similar injuries, set to work to devise a system to eliminate for others the dangers that caused their own injuries.

The result was the invention of a fireproof gasoline tank, containing a fire-resisting chemical which extinguishes any fire that may start from a leak in the gasoline tank system. Another flask containing acid is installed over the engine of the airplane. This flask releases its acid as soon as a certain temperature has been reached. The invention is built in much the same manner as a time bomb is constructed.

Mr. Gose entered the service at Fort Meyer, Virginia. He served for a time in a battery of field artillery until he obtained a transfer to the aviation service. He received training with the Canadian Royal Flying Corps at Toronto, and completed his course at Hicks, Tex. Commissioned a first lieutenant, he went overseas with the Twenty-second aero squadron. Later he was detached for service with the British Royal Flying Corps. It was while he was with the British that he suffered the accident.

Flying at an altitude of between 500 and 600 feet, a sheet of flame shot from underneath the front gasoline tank of his plane. Lieutenant Gose immediately put the machine into a sid-slip to put the flames out, and also to make a landing. The plane crashed on one wing and the pilot was pinned in the burning wreckage. Struggling to get free from the blazing plane, he broke both legs in the attempt. Meanwhile the fire was burning around his legs and body. Eventually, comrades, risking their lives, succeeded in pulling the lieutenant from the plane. What was left of his right leg had to be amputated.

"My one thought during the 19 months I was in the hospital was to find a fire-prevention equipment that would save other flyers from my own experience," Lieutenant Gose stated. An organizer of the American Legion post at Bristol, Va., Lieutenant Gose has been connected with this service organization since the early days of its existence.

WOODLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heberling and son Jack, Mrs. Heberling and Mrs. Clara Stewart of Tyrone, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Elisha Davis and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis of the Knobb Farm, near Grampian; Mrs. Hoyt and two daughters of Springfield, Mass.; Wm. Brown and family, Miss Salome Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Stevens of Clearfield, were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Palmer.

Miss Margaret Baird left Saturday for Baltimore where she will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Stessley, of St. Mary's were guests on Sunday at the home of N. G. Stewart.

Mrs. John E. Wiser and daughter, Esther and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wiser are sitting friends in Pittsburgh this week.

Rev. J. F. Strayer, formerly a pastor of the Woodland U. B. church and family of Latrobe, were visitors here last week.

The new road from Woodland to the Pleasant Valley church was opened to traffic on Wednesday morning.

Misses Kathryn Pearce and Cecilia Baker represented the M. E. S. S. at the convention held at Bigler on Thursday. J. V. Knepp of the U. B. church was also in attendance.

Jerome Knepp and family have returned from a week's visit in Philadelphia.

The Ladies Bible Class and their husbands and the Young Ladies Philathea class and their husbands and friends of the M. E. S. S. picnicked at the Pee Wee's nest near Curwensville on Thursday afternoon. There were over 70 present and had a most enjoyable time.

Harry Dixon, formerly of Phillipsburg, but who has been on the police force of Pittsburgh 21 years, is visiting at the home of his daughters and sister, Mrs. Carl Turner and Mrs. Harry Turner, who reside about one mile south of town.

Mrs. J. J. Learish and son Cleve, of Woodland, recently returned from a six week's visit to Scottsdale and Pittsburgh, accompanied by the former and sister Mrs. Carl Turner and Mrs. little granddaughter, Mary Jean Lansberry both of Pittsburgh.

Makes It Easier to Forgive. We all seem a little mad to each other; an excellent arrangement for the bulk of humanity, which makes it an easy matter to be forgiven. — Emerson is the one thing that cannot be taken from him. It is one of the few things; as well, that cannot be given to a man. One has to work and live, to acquire knowledge. Experience is the only really great teacher.

It is for this reason that we feel our twenty years of service are of very practical value to you, for they have taught us how to serve better.

WINBURNE RESIDENTS NOTICE

Toxin-Antitoxin To Be Administered Free at Baby Clinic.

The Bureau of Child Health of the State Health Department is now prepared to immunize against diphtheria all children between the ages of six months and six years whose parents desire it.

The immunizing agent is known as "toxin-antitoxin". It is given in three weekly doses and produces no sore or sickness, nor does it leave any disfiguring scar.

The hours and place where this work can be done free in this district are Tuesday, 2 to 4 p. m. in Well Baby Clinic room, Sommerville & Co. store.

This is a great opportunity, and parents are advised to take advantage of it. Medical authorities say that the use of this new toxin will prevent a person from ever contracting the dreaded diphtheria.

This Century Plant.
The report that a century plant blooms only once in a hundred years is probably due to the impatience of some of its admirers. In some parts of South America where it grows wild it blooms once in eight years, but when it has been transplanted into greenhouses under artificial conditions its blooming date is much prolonged.

Did Seem Peculiar.
"Say," said the suspicious Mrs. Hayritz, "Jim Peabody, cashier of the bank, was down today and bought Deacon Brown's fast colt for $100." "Huh!" exclaimed Farmer Hayritz, "that's just the amount I put in his damned old bank yesterday. It's mighty peculiar—mighty so."

Confidence Wins.
There is nothing that is more effective in promoting your mental elements to do better work and more work than the positive conviction that you can, the deep interior feeling that you can—Larsen

Coats for First Cool Days

Here are the styles in children's coats, recommended for their but ton-high neck, their pockets and their comfortable style and their appearance. One is a hooded coat, the other hangs from the shoulder and flares out.

Little John's Wish.
John's mother objects to quarrelling and fighting among her children. One day some one described a friend's house as having such heavy partition walls that noise in one room could not be heard in an adjoining room. John said, "I wish our house was like that; then when mamma is in the sitting room and us kids in the dining room get a scrap started, we could fight in peace."

Marble in Washington Monument.
All the marble in the facing of the walls of the Washington monument came from Denver Dam Quarry, Baltimore county, Maryland. The slight difference in the color is due to the fact that work was interrupted for over twenty years and exposure to the elements had effected the marble slightly.

Injury.
One of the most exciting occupations is that in which newshyrs engage when a coin drops through a grating in the sidewalk. A long stick is found first. Someone provides a cud of chewing gum which is stuck on the end of the stick. Tied one of the boys guides the gum to the coin and draws it forth, while the rest of the gang coaches and criticizes.—Ex Change.

MRS. LINDQUIST TELLS WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Kansas City, Mo.—"I was left in a very nervous condition after childbirth and no one could ever be my better. Then I read the 'Change of Life' and I was not surprised for what I had to suffer. I had to go to bed at times and I could not even stoop down to pick anything from the floor. I did not realize any pain, but I was decidedly nervous and could not sleep. For nearly two years I was in this way, and the doctor was frank enough to tell me that he could do no more for me. Shortly after this I happened to see in a newspaper an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In a few days the medicine was in the house and I had begun to use it and I took it regularly until I was well. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to all women who have the opportunity."—Mrs. MAY LINDQUIST, 2514 Independence Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

YOUR EYES SHOULD HAVE SOME HELP
Your eyes especially if you are doing work that needs a close application to books or the like, should have some help. If you are lame you use a cane; if your head aches you take some medicine; if your feet hurt you, you change your shoes. Why not help your eyes by having me fit glasses that will relieve eyestrain?

LOCAL HORSE SHOE MEN OFF TO CORRY

The outcome of the second game with Corry on their courts is very much in the balance. Late Thursday afternoon a wire was received asking a postponement but the date had been theirs and careful arrangements had been made here to meet it in four different plants. An immediate return wire asked that on account of the lateness of the notice the original plans could be carried out. The men had left before the Corry answer saying that Saturday was totally impossible was received. The men are Smith, Flint, Hudson and Johnson. There was nothing to do but tell Corry that the men were on their way.

Miss Margaret Littman and brother Bernard, have returned home after spending a few months with their grandparents at Washington, D. C. Miss Safome E. Welch, of Butler, is spending some time with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Welch on Bridge street.

PLAYGROUND BASEBALL

A very important managers meeting sat yesterday morning on some matters that have come up in the baseball game. The decisions are as follows and will probably hold till the end of the season, Aug. 30:
1. The age limit is raised to 16.
2. The East End-Reedsville game of Wednesday will be played over at a date on which the two managers agree and on neutral ground.
3. The 50-foot diamond is still good but all teams should have their base lines marked before the visiting team arrives.
The following is the schedule and all players should cut it out so there will be no confusion as to dates and places.

Thursday, Aug. 16: East End to Reedsville; West Side to Witmer.
Monday, Aug. 20: Witmer to East End.

Wednesday, Aug. 22: Witmer to West Side (big diamond); Reedsville and East End at Reed street.
Thursday, Aug. 23: Reedsville and

West Side at Reed street.

Monday, Aug. 27: Witmer to Reedsville; West Side to East End.

The Thursday game between West Side and Witmer was very much in Witmer's favor. The other three teams in the league will have to unite against First Ward and beat them a few if the cup is to land anywhere but in the middle of town. Witmer has won every game so far simply because there are plenty of boys who are interested in the standing of their playground, not because of any lack of baseball material in the other wards. For instance, a player on a team that needs men badly refused to do his bit even if paid for it.

JORDAN'S

COMEDY HAS ENJOYED LONG RECORD RUN OF THREE HUNDRED YEARS

One good way to judge a play is by the number of times it has been played. If audiences enjoy it, they recommend it to their friends and so it plays night after night making new friends all the time. Consequently, when we see a play advertised as having played "300 times in New York" or "200 times in Chicago," we know that it is pretty likely to be an entertaining play.

What shall we say, then, of a play that has run not for 300 performances only, but for 300 years? Surely that indicates, absolutely, that it is an entertaining play!

"The Taming of the Shrew" made its audience roar with laughter when it was first produced at the Globe Theatre, in London, more than 300 years ago, by William Shakespeare, the most popular playwright of his day. Since then it has been played all over the world. It has been translated into nearly all languages, has been enjoyed by literally millions of people in every quarter of the globe, and today is just as entertaining and just as funny as it was the day it was written.

Its author has been pronounced not only the "most popular playwright of his day," but the greatest poet and dramatist of all times. He knew what would make his audience weep, as his great tragedies will testify; but he knew equally well what would make his audiences laugh, and no play bears stronger witness of this than the hilarious story of "The Taming of the Shrew."

There is also a rollicking, romantic element to the story in the flight of Bianca, the pretty younger sister, whose father will not let her marry until her elder sister, the ill-tempered Katharine, has found a husband. The efforts of Bianca's suitors to find some man brave enough to marry Katharine; their meeting with the swaggering, adventure-loving, Petruchio, and his boast that he will marry Katharine and make a model wife of her; the way he carries out his boast; and the fight among Bianca's lovers as to which one shall marry her after her sister is safely out of the way, make up a play that is comedy and romance from beginning to end.

When the play is given here, as a part of the Chautauqua program, the role of Katharine will be played by Miss Olive Oliver, one of the foremost Shakespearean actresses in the American theatre. The role of Petruchio will be played by Louis Leon Hall, who has been leading man with many of the famous stars, including Nat Goodwin, Robert Mantell, Walker Whitesides and Nance O'Neill. Robert Strauss will have one of the principal comedy roles and the remainder of the cast will be made up of experienced and able players. Miss Oliver, Mr. Hall, and Mr. Strauss have just closed a long season on tour with Fritz Leiber in Shakespearean repertoires.

Not Exactly.
 "Now that feuds have practically ceased in this region," said the skeptical tourist, "I presume you have, figuratively speaking, benten your pistols to pinning hooks?" "Nope!" replied Mr. Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark. "In the first place, we don't raise pinches yet, and in the second place you never know when a dead feud will be a to get up and take notice."—Kansas City Star.

OWENS-WALTHER

Elmer S. Owens, one of Lawrence Township's popular young men and Miss Leah Walther, of Clearfield, were united in marriage on Wednesday evening, Aug. 8, 1923, at 9:00 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage, in Curwensville, the pastor Rev. J. C. Collins officiating. They were attended by the brother and sister of the bride, Miss Irene Walther and Coe Walther.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Walther, of West Side Clearfield, employed for five years in the grocery store of Walker & Lov, where she was held in high regard.

The bride groom saw service in the World War, and for some time has been in the employ of the Paterson Fire Brick Works. Both have a host of friends, whose best wishes will accompany them on their journey thru life.

The young couple left on Thursday morning for a short auto trip. On their return they will take up house-keeping on Clearfield street where a home awaits them.

FOURS and SIXES

These new Nash conceptions in open and enclosed car types are now placed on display with a quiet surety that they will exceed the expectations even of those who look for Nash to lead the way and who consequently set their hopes highest.

With traditional progressiveness Nash has developed a number of bodies and other outstanding improvements whose artistry and execution is as certain to command the professional concern of coachwork craftsmen and engineers as the admiration of the public at large.

With no justification in the way of increased manufacturing costs for a price advance Nash stands firm on current prices so that the important and expensive new car advancements relating both to engineering and equipment in reality constitute a price reduction.

COOLIDGE CLOSETED ENTIRE MORNING WITH HIS CABINET

Christian's Method of
Considerable Gossip;
Coolidge Not Notified.

'CAL' UNDISTURBED

Willard, Washington, D. C., Aug. 11.—
President Calvin Coolidge held an
informal and unofficial cabinet meeting in his suite here today.
Secretary heads of the various government branches came and discussed
the pressing problems of their departments. Their call was the first of the
day and occupied the entire morning.

Washington, Aug. 11.—President
Calvin Coolidge came back to Washington today to wield his power as Chief Executive for the first time in
shaping the new policies of the Nation.

Unrestricted now he will go to
own ideas and face his first test in
office.

The first matter to be settled is
the resignation of George Christian as
personal secretary to the President, a matter which goes under the
surface of the political situation
deeper than the mere appointment of
the new Secretary.

Christian's resignation was ex-
unprecedented way in which it came.
All precedents indicated that Christian might ordinarily have called
upon Mr. Coolidge in a few days and
formally resigned his post. Instead
he made the announcement to the
services were concluded.

It is believed Christian was not
pleased over the transfer of Major
Ora Baldwin, personal friend of
Mrs. Harding from his Chief of Pa-
lice post at the White House and the
appointment of Col. Sherrill as military aide to Mr. Coolidge.

Mr. Coolidge believes the entire
situation arose because of a misunderstanding, and he probably will attempt to right the matter as far as
is within his power.

Edwin T. Clark as personal secre-

Secretary Weeks, Secretary Hughes,
Secretary Hoover, Secretary Wot,
Postmaster General New and Secretary Walla.

The first formal meeting of the cabinet will be held next Tuesday, it was decided.

Mr. Woodrow Wilson went into the
anthracite coal situation very
fully and told the President of the
present railroad facilities as his department found them.

Hughes discussed the Mexican recognition conference now in progress
in Mexico and touched on the World
go deeply into the question. Hughes
is not very optimistic over progress
in the Mexican conference, it was indicated.

Wallace brought to the President
the farm situation and talked rail-
road rates.

Weeks spoke on the army situation
and work told the President of Mr.

Between the calls of cabinet members George Christian, secretary to President Harding, came but the President was busy and Christian
said he would return later. He will
then discuss his resignation an-

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Arrest
of a woman bootlegger with 108
quarts of whiskey in a sedan car was
announced by state police today in reporting enforcement activities for the
past week.
A total of 72 arrests were made. In
the haul 178 quarts of champagne
were seized.

Katherine Kelly and Mr. and Mrs.
Chick Larson and daughter of Cur-
wensville shopped in town.

London, Aug. 11.—Chancellor
Cuno tendered his resignation to President Ebert, who refused to accept it, according to Central

Berlin, Aug. 11.—Eleven persons
were killed today in wild disorder and
food riots in the vicinity of Aachen,
according to advices from that city.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—An infantry company with machine guns is guarding
the residence of Chancellor Cuno to-
day, the fourth anniversary of the establishment of the German republic,
when bloody clashes between workers and police were reported from Hamburg, Bremen, Leipzig and Kiel.

One worker was killed and many
injured in fighting with the police at
Ratibor.

The threat of a Soviet government
in Germany was heard from the lips
of a communist deputy in the Reich-
stag yesterday and President Ebert
immediately issued a proclamation
warning radicals to refrain from cir-
culating hand bills or posters, holding
meetings or making speeches thought
to endanger public order.

Morning found the order disobeyed
as crowds took advantage of "Constitution Day," which is the anniversary
of the adoption of the Weimar Constitution, which made Germany a re-
public, to express their disapproval of
and money shortage.

Berlin, August 11.—Rioting and bloodshed marked Germany's "Constitution Day" in at least three cities of the Ruhr today.

Reports indicated that twenty persons were dead and scores wounded in
hopelessness.

The most serious disorders were in Aachen, a suburb of Borken, where 11 persons were reported killed
and many wounded during wild riot-
ing. The city was without money and
congregated in the main town, Bork-
scheid.

Hamburg reports one dead and
many wounded. In clashes
police and unemployed two were killed
at Ratibor. Disorders also were
threatened in Mulheim where indus-
trials warned striking workers they
would declare a lock-out if the men

Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Thom-
Gwendolyn, and son Stephen Ben-
min, of Winb. nc. are spending a
part of their vacation at Chautauqua
Lake, N. Y., from where they report
attendance at a great national
moral to President Harding attended
by over 8,000 people from all parts
of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Row have
gone to Salona for the week-end.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—State
Treasurer Snyder must defend him-
self as a private citizen and not as a State Officer, Attorney General Wood-
ruff, advised him in a letter made
public here today following a writ of
mandamus, which will be heard here
next week. Snyder must pay counsel
retained by him to defend his
not out of any appropriation by the
Attorney General Woodruff.

Snyder advised in the letter that
on Monday the Attorney General will
ask the Court to fix the date of argument not later than August 16.
This was to be done, Woodruff said
today, to expedite matters which
have already been delayed unneces-
sarily.

The opinion to Snyder stated,—
as an official of the State you have
no power or right to spend the money
of the State in litigation with the
of a private citizen, you desire to
have the validity of any statutes tested, the law provides a method for so
doing. In such a case, however, it
would be at the expense of yourself
and associates.

Woodruff stated he would oppose
acts of 1915, which provides a method
of redress by calling upon the Attorney for assistance is cited by Wood-
ruff as the proper course for any department head to take when legal
questions arise.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Court
proceedings more far-reaching than
the action now pending against State
of millions of dollars to state-owned,
state-aided institutions, was foreshadowed today by Auditor General S. S.
Lewis.

Attorney General Woodruff is asked
to be a party to "amicable" proceedings in the local court in order to
have "conflicting provisions judicially

Mrs. Harding Leaves on
Special for the White
Without "Warren."

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 10.—Harding
of Ohio, is home tonight sleeping
time away near the mother on whose
knee his first childish dream of
greatness was prattled.

special train left Marion tonight for Washington. It was the same except for one coach that left San Francisco one week ago; the same
that slowly crossed the continent to
tination here.

as the "Harding Funeral Train." The
missing car has been taken away.
The body it brought home had been
laid to rest. It departed from Marion this evening, never again to be
used intact.

Still there rode in another car to-
night a grief-stricken woman. She, too,
was the same who crossed the continent to the capital and on to Marion, bearing herself bravely, assur-
right" and there was no cause for
them to worry. This was the first
time in the memory of Marion citizenship that Florence Harding had
gone away without "Warren."
Mrs. Harding will return soon to
her home, temporarily, to reside with
friends. Mrs. Harding insists they
main in her residence in accordance
with the terms of the agreement she
made with them.

train who could tell how long Mrs.
Harding would remain in Washington. She did not know. All that could be said was that she would
return as soon as she could adjust
her affairs at the White House and
have the personal effects she and
Mr. Harding had learned to love during their residence there removed to
some other abode, possibly to a stor-
age house.

An "old fashioned" Firemen's Convention is what all signs point to for
next week in Clearfield. During the
three years attendance at the annual Firemen's Conventions has not
been what it ought to be but the vigorous publicity methods of the local
committee coupled with the attractions to be provided are going to
turn the tables this year and put the
annual Firemen's convention back to
its proper place.

First announcements sent out by
the local committee, were just a lit-
not elicit much of a response from
the companies far away from Clear-
field but the committee was not satisfied and kept right at it. Last evening they had the complete satisfaction of noting by reason of the
work was bearing fruit and now look
forward to a truly wonderful convention.

First came the word from the Hope
Company of Philipsburg that they
would be here practically to a man
and bring with them a band of fifty pieces. Then, Reliance of Philipsburg phoned in and said
"we're coming too." "Our band is
not so big, only thirty pieces, but it
has quality and you'll know we're
there." DuBois is coming too. District Secretary Johnson advises that
the DuBois department will be here
and that they are now arranging to
bring the B. R. & P. shop band.
Punx' Lindsey and Johnsonburg
not only for the convention but to
camp at the park for the week. Patton is coming, so is Osceola, Hout-
dale and Winburne. Jersey Shore has been heard from and while arrangements are not yet complete, the Jersey Shore Jaddies hope to be able to bring the Jersey Shore Shop band.

If Jersey Shore comes, that means
that Tyrone and Bellefonte will join
the procession. Nothing has been
heard from Portage but that city
has a habit of coming in and copping
the drill prizes and dollars to dough-
nuts they will be on the job.
Philipsburg is going to bring some
of their equipment and no doubt
many of the others will too.

The city is taking on a gala appearance. The professional decorator, held up somewhat by the Harding mourning period, is now free to
go ahead and he is working wonders.

Market street from Third to Front
and Second street from Cherry to Locust will form the Court of Honor
and just now the decorator is concentrating on this square. This morning the business men's committee
called on the County Commissioners
to request them to doll up the Court House properly and no doubt this
will be done, otherwise it would be a
sore spot on an otherwise healthy
looking public Court of Honor. The Court House will stand a lot of
beautifying to make it look like the
rest of the buildings on the Court of Honor and it is hoped that the Commissioners will do their full share.

HEALTH CONDITION REMAINS GOOD IN ALL PARTS OF CITY

Secretary Gaulin of the local Board
of Health, in his weekly statement regarding health conditions, says that
but one case of communicable disease
was reported to the Board for the
seven days ending today. During the
same period the quarantine was lifted
in two cases, leaving but nine cases
of contagion under quarantine at the
present time.

These nine cases are located as follows:—

- First Ward: None.
- Second Ward: Diphtheria 1, whoop-
ing cough 2.
- Third Ward: Diphtheria 1.
- Fourth Ward: Whooping cough 5.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HERE ATTENDED BY RECORD BREAKING CROWD; ALL SECTS AND CREEDS PAY HOMAGE

An audience of more than three
thousand Clearfielders gathered at
the Clearfield Park Friday afternoon
at 4 o'clock to participate in the memorial exercises for our late President Warren G. Harding, whose funeral occurred at his home in Marion
Ohio, at that hour.

The general committee representing all the churches of the town
which has been named by Burgess
Kittelberger had prepared an interesting program for the occasion and
the same was carried through ex-
pediently and without a hitch of
any kind. The service was highly impressive throughout, the assemblage
showing marked devotion and reverence.

John F. Short presided over the
meeting. The entrance on the West Side of the exhibition building was
converted into a speakers stand,
having been properly decorated and
arranged for the occasion. This arrangement allowed the people to
mass in front of the stand, chairs and
benches being provided for the people near the stand, while the rising
ground immediately beyond the road
was utilized by the people unable
to get seats. The porches at the
rest room nearby also accommodated
quite a number.

The Clearfield Italian Band
opened the exercises with a "Memorial March," excellently rendered
while the American Legion Band followed with the "Serenade Funere."

Following this music Chairman
Short took up the memorial program
and announced Rev. M. A. Ryan of
St. Francis church, who delivered an impressive invocation.

The assemblage then joined in
singing one of the late President's favorite hymns, "Nearer My God to

Following this hymn Rev. W. L.
Cruthers of the Baptist church delivered an eloquent prayer in which
he asked intercession for the illus-
trous dead and the continued favor
of the Almighty upon America, her
government and her people.

Rev. W. E. Gibbons, of the Allen
A. M. E. church, then arose and read
the 23d Psalm and Micah, 6:8 verses
favored by President Harding, the
latter verses being those touched by
Mr. Harding's lips when he took the
oath of office as President.

Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, of

Trinity Methodist church followed
with a reading of Revelations 21:1-8,
scriptural passages comforting to deceased during his life time and message of the Master.

Chairman Short then introduced
Hon. William I. Swoope, as the first
memorial speaker. Mr. Swoope,
whose abilities are well known along
oratorical lines, made a particularly
inspiring address, in which he ex-
celled President Harding for his
breadth of vision, greatness of heart
and his constructive statesmanship.
Mr. Swoope's address was particularly able and brilliant and made a
profound impression upon his hear-
ers.

At the conclusion of Mr. Swoope's
splendid effort the band again led
Kindly Light."

A. H. Woodward, Esq., was then
presented by the Chairman and he
eulogized the dead leader of our nation in choice language. He spoke
of the early life and struggles of the
deceased, touching upon his rugged
homely, steadfastness of purpose
and ability to do the right in all
things affecting the best interests of
the nation he governed so well. Mr.
Woodward's address was eloquent
throughout and elicited much favorable comment.

Rev. E. C. Reeve of the Presbyterian church followed by Mr. Wood-
ward with a characteristically elo-
quent prayer after which the band
led while the assemblage sang
God bless our grieving land!
Firm may she ever stand!

Through storm and night:
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do Thou our country save
By Thy great might!

For her our prayer shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On Him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guardian with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry,
God save the State.

Allen Hatch of St. Andrew's church
brought the services to a close and
the assemblage quietly dispersed to their
homes to the strains of the parting
song from the "Trumpet of the Kingdom" rendered by the American Legion Band.

Christian Resigns As Executive Secretary To The President

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 10.—George
B. Christian, secretary to Warren G.
Harding, as United States senator,
and as president, announced tonight
that he had submitted his resignation
as executive secretary to President
Coolidge.

Mr. Christian made his announcement soon after he had returned
chief.

"I entered public life with Warren
G. Harding," and I leave it now that
he is called away," he said. "For
nearly nine years I worked beside
him, and my present sorrow is some-
what assuaged by the feeling of satisfaction of having been permitted
to serve a great president, a most
humane and considerate chief, and
the finest friend it has ever been
given a man to have."

Mr. and Mrs. James McCarthy and
daughters have returned to their
home in Lock Haven after spending
Mrs. J. G. Bumgarner on Daisy street.

Milford, Pa., Aug. 11.—Gov-
nor Pinchot celebrated his 56th
birthday here today at work
with the members of his "official"
family, including Attorney Gen-
of the Commonwealth, Clyde L.
King, who, as members of the

France Sees The Collapse Of German Opposition In Ruhr As Result Of Uprisings In Germany

Paris, Aug. 1.—French statesmen
force complete collapse of German
resistance in the occupied areas as
the result of the debacle of the magnate and the disturbed political situation.

The crash must come, Paris feels,
because here is the Ruhr, one of the
most highly industrialized regions in
the world with millions of manual
workers paid in nothing but help of
practically worthless paper. The
workers cannot buy food with marks.
They have nothing to sell except
their own labor. They cannot trade
and barter as the farmers can. The
specter of starvation moves.

Farmers in the occupied area will
not sell their products no matter
how many bales of paper are offered.
Sugar, butter, coffee, eggs cannot be
procured. Keeping pace with the
food shortage industrial paralysis is
spreading as the dealers in the great
industrial labyrinth feel the first
pangs of hunger. Many portions of
the Thyssen and Krupp works closed
this week.

George W. Brett and son Leroy, of Daisy street, motored to Conneaut
Lake today and will send Sunday with
the former's sister, Mrs. Calvin Eck-
ley and his daughter, Mrs. F. E.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. L. C.

Here is just one of the things that Volstead can properly be charged with. "The proprietor of a number of hotels in New York and other cities announces that he will have chapels for meditation and prayer constructed in all his hostelry. From time to time special services will be held in the chapels, but the principal purpose is to provide a place where the guests may go quiet thinking at any hour."

The Highway is the longest road in the world. It is more than 4,000 miles long, connecting New York with San Francisco through eleven States.

Get a photograph of your fiancée's feet before you marry her, prospective husbands have been advised by Dr. E. E. Hayden, former President of the National Association of Gynecologists, addressing the annual convention of the organization in the Hotel Astor.

These photographs are an index of character, he said. "The high-heeled, pointed shoe is worn by shallow-minded women, such as jazz dancers and women who care more for amusement than they do for the staid things of life. Beware of girls of this type."

But the modern girl with normal feet is an exception, Dr. Hayden added. He said that of 500 students at Kansas University, whose feet he examined, only two had perfect feet and one of these was a Chinese. Among half as many New Hampshire State College students he couldn't find one with perfect feet, he asserted.

The speaker warned especially against girls with low arches. She is "crust and exacting," he said, this type of foot predominating among ancient Romans and Attila's Huns.

Every outstanding incident in American history brings to mind the capacity of our people, regardless of race or creed, for thinking in the mass and the ability to meet any condition with a solid front. That solidarity, which makes this nation the greatest nation it is, stands out as a beacon to all the world, in every crisis, to the same one of war or of peace, and never yet in the life of this nation has there been even the semblance of a division among

If you bring in your watch to me and say, "Bill, fix that so it will run," you may rest assured that when I tell you that it is in good running order that it will keep the kind of time you want your watch to keep.

I have fixed up some pretty bad cases of watch disease and some of them the owners thought were well nigh hopeless. But this experience that I have had, I know about all the troubles that a watch is heir to and know how to repair them.

Americans. There is no need for any man or set of men attempting to usurp or direct the patriotism of Americans by shouting from the housetop "I am 100 per cent American." That is but unnecessary lip service and generally is a cloak for hypocrisy and cant. Every thinking American is 100 per cent American, and, if such a thing was possible or necessary, would be even one hundred and one per cent American.

The truth of the above was apparent all over this broad land yesterday, when a sorrowing people gathered in each of their home communities to do honor and pay the last sad tribute to their President and leader. Elected as a representative of a party or part of the people after a stirring and arduous campaign less than three short years ago, he was the President of all the people and at his death, by the gentleness of his nature, the kindness of his great heart and his efforts to do the most good for the greatest number, had so grown in the affections of all of the American people that his untimely passing away brought genuine sorrow into the hearts of all our people, in whose service Warren G. Harding gave up his life.

All classes, all creeds, all Americans, met to express their sorrow at the passing of this good man. It was a sublime sight and once more demonstrated that all Americans are 100 per cent Americans and that such has been and always will be the case.

To Relieve Canaries of Vermin. Canary birds are often covered with vermin. They may be relieved of them by placing a clean white cloth over their cage at night. In the morning the cloth will be covered with minute red spots so small that they can hardly be seen with the naked eye. These are the parasites a source of great annoyance to the birds.

World's Longest Poem. The longest poem on record is Spenser's "Fairy Queen." It is only a quarter the length of the original plan, yet it is as long as Homer's "Iliad" and "Odyssey" and Virgil's "Aeneid" put together, and more than three times longer than Milton's "Paradise Lost" and "Paradise Regained" in one.

Using Watch as Compass. With a watch flat in the hand, the hour hand pointing toward the sun, the point on the circle half way between the hour hand and XII will be directly south in the northern hemisphere and directly north in the southern hemisphere.

Today prepared to gather up the last thread of her life and weave them into a new design. She arrived here from Marion at 9:30 a. m.

She reentered this morning the empty White House and collected her personal belongings, every one of them to remind her of the husband she had left at Marion cemetery. Just as there were no hysterics or self pity in her demeanor during the death and burial, so there will be no hysteria about her final days in the White House.

George D. Christian, Jr., her late husband's secretary and Harry Barker, the secret service man assigned to her when she entered the White House, will stay with her to help until the work of removal is finished.

When she is through at the White House, Mrs. Harding may stay for a time with friends near Washington or she may go to the home of her brother, C. B. Kline in Marion. For the next six months she will most likely be in retirement from the large circle that knew her.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

A regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. F. C. Irvin yesterday evening.

It was opened by Mrs. Runk reading a poem and a prayer. A circular from Mrs. George, state president, was then read stating on our active program of the law enforcement movement, also giving dates of national convention at Columbus, O., September 4-13.

Thanks of Governor Pinchot to State W. C. T. U. for assistance in raising money for enforcement, was read by Mrs. Chorpennig, who also read of a huge living bouquet presented as a birthday gift to Miss Anna A. Gordon from a large number of the state's representatives during the year.

"Total Abstinence in the White House" was read, telling of the banning of liquor from the table by the late lamented President Warren G. Harding.

Election then took place, resulting in retaining the officers of the last year. Preparations were made for the entertainment of the county convention which will be held in Clearfield the 23rd and 24th of this month.

Mary, Dorothy and George D. Welch, who spent their vacation with their grandparents, have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. I. H. W. Kline and son Jack, have returned home after a month spent with relatives and friends in Elmira, Horsehead and Buffalo, N. Y.

CONVERTING STEEL INTO FORD SPRINGS REALLY A BIG JOB

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 10.—Converting of four car loads of steel into 18,000 springs every day is one of the interesting manufacturing operations of the Ford Motor Company at its Highland Park plant and the department at present employs 600 men to bring this production.

Of particular interest are the extraordinary tests to which the steel is subjected in order to prove its strength before it is permitted to enter the manufacturing process.

Before acceptance from the mills samples of the steel are made into trial springs and these are placed in a special apparatus where they are subjected to 90,000 continuous vibrations of 1,850 pounds to each stroke. In actual use, it isn't often that auto springs receive such enormous pressure, and the quality of genuine Ford springs is strikingly shown by the fact that so-called "Ford" springs made by outside companies break before 20,000 of these vibrations.

Once the metal is found by test to be of standard quality, manufacture begins. The steel is heated in furnaces to 1,500 degrees Fahrenheit and the leaves are formed and hardened in oil in one operation. Following this they are tempered in nitrate at 875 degrees Fahrenheit, then they are graphitized and are ready for use.

"Only the most strenuous efforts on the part of every ticket seller and a generous response by the citizens of Clearfield before noon Tuesday next will save our Chautauqua from embarrassment," said S. C. Kirk, chairman of the ticket committee of the Clearfield Chautauqua at a meeting of the district captains last night at the Y. M. C. A. It was made plain by him that season tickets cannot be obtained after that time and that those getting single admissions put a burden on the guarantors.

An advance representative of the Swarthmore Chautauqua was present. Walter J. Millard, who explained very clearly the rule that is rigidly adhered to for the seating of children.

"All unaccompanied children," said he, "must take seats on the aisles and not on the front rows. Even for children with their parents there must be one grown person for every three children if they wish to occupy the front rows. The junior leader, and the law and order commissioners who are elected by the children themselves at Junior Chautauqua, assist in seeing that this rule, which is made for everybody's benefit, is observed."

Mr. Millard also read letters from

other cities on the circuit which declared that the program, which will be presented here, is the strongest and best balanced ever offered.

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:38-42; John 11:1-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Mary hath chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her."—Luke 10:42.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus and Mary.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—True Friendship shown by Martha and Mary.

In this picture we see Martha engaged in preparing a meal for Jesus. In her effort to make the best preparation for her honored guest, she became distracted. She not only was troubled with much serving but she found fault with Mary for not helping her. She even censured the Lord for permitting such neglect. Martha has had her followers in all ages. Every church has its Marthas. The busy, troubled and busy women who are engaged in service for the Lord with little patience for those who sit at the feet of Jesus. Mary sat at Jesus' feet and heard His word. She had taken her turn in the service as the word "also" would imply. She did not neglect service, but had the keenness of perception to discern that communion with the Lord was more prized by Him than the preparing of a meal. Both of these women loved the Lord and it is impossible to say which loved Him more. In the days of sunshine in this home, Mary made the good choice of communion with her Lord.

The next scene which occupies our attention is the occasion of the resurrection of Lazarus. In the time of the sickness of Lazarus, these sisters had sent for Jesus. Jesus loved the members of this household, and yet, strange to say, He delayed His going unto them. Martha met Him with rebuke, saying that if He had been there her brother had not died. This carried with it the censure for His delay under such trying circumstances. This act of Martha called forth some marvelous teachings on the resurrection. After this interview with Martha, she came to Mary with the message of a call from Jesus. Mary was composed and remained in the house until called for. She immediately responded to this call and used the identical words of Martha, but instead of rebuking Him, she mingled His words of sympathy with hers of sorrow. The reason she had such composure in this dark hour was that she had patiently sat at His feet and listened to His word so that she understood the meaning of the tragedy. The difference then in the behavior of these two women in this dark hour was doubtless due to the fact that in the days of sunshine Mary had entered fully into fellowship with the Lord and that Martha had lost this grace through her fretfulness.

III. Jesus Entertained at Bethany. (John 1:1-9.)

At this supper appeared Mary, Martha and Lazarus, who was raised from the dead. Doubtless this supper was in grateful appreciation of His help and sympathy in the days of their trial. At this meal Martha was back at her old business of serving, but it would seem with an untroubled disposition. Mary took a pound of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped them with her hair. This was a token of her great love and devotion. She was back in her accustomed place at the feet of Jesus. With the keen intuition of true love, she brought her costliest gift as an evidence of her love. She thus anticipated His death and burial, knowing that she could not minister unto Him then. The Lord received this act of love at its full value. Against the fact of Lazarus' death, Jesus defended Mary. He declared that it was no more a waste than the ointment placed on the bodies of the dead in embalment. In fact it was the doing of this very act beforehand unto Him. Only Mary of all His disciples had really understood Jesus when He said He must be crucified and raised again the third day. The announcement of His crucifixion brought unto the others dismay. They refused to believe in the resurrection, but Mary came to anoint His body for burying.

By FLORENCE DAVIES

A little old lady with a bundle under her arm walked uncertainly up to the information desk at the public headquarters of one of our big cities, and asked the way to the post office.

For over sixty years she had known nothing but hard work. And now the little she could do was not enough to earn the scant reward of other body's demands. Her husband had died years before, her daughter was married and poor, and she herself was too weak to travel farther alone. Friends, if any, had little to give and her proud old spirit wouldn't ask.

But the little old lady never started down that last hill. Any brusque deputy sheriff who happened to hear her story took her aside. Perhaps his keen blue eyes saw a fleeting picture of what his own mother might some day, but for better fortune, have had to suffer; and so he bundled her off to his home, there to play "Grannie" to his youngsters and help his wife about the lighter household tasks.

The young, helpless as they may be, have at least a chance of brighter days ahead. But to have played the long game through and then find oneself alone and defeat in the end, is indeed a heavy sentence.

In one city in the United States there are five or six old people who take each month a check from the cashier of a bank. No one ever told them who sends the check, and they never will. At the time of inquiry as to the source of the money, the cashier's never fail.

It's the way one man I know is doing his sharp of his y's burden "Every one," says this man, "is to himself as a matter of fact. I am pline to give something to others not for personal glory, or gain, but just to help those less fortunate."

Imagine what it would mean to lives of some very poor old people to have even five or ten dollars drop down mysteriously each month, to supply some of the little extra necessities which they might have known when younger.

Are all the old people who know how fairly happy and content they are just checking out of the

The death of President Harding has had its effect on politics of Pennsylvania during the week. The effect has been both direct and indirect. The direct effect has been to slow up political processes because the politicians did not feel it fitting to engage in campaigning at this time, and to take some of the important figures in state politics out of Pennsylvania in connection with the funeral ceremonies. A few of those who went to Washington include Senator Pepper, Governor and Mrs. Pinchot, Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton and many of the congressmen. The absence of so many notables naturally slows things up.

The indirect effect of the late President's death has been to revive discussion of additional honors for Senator George Wharton Pepper, with consequent bearings on the political complication which will inhere in our status quo until such time as the situation which arose when Governor Sprout named him as Senator is ironed out.

There has always been a feeling that some day or other Mr. Sprout will go to Washington as United States Senator from Pennsylvania. It was known to be his ambition for some years. The death of Senator Penrose created the vacancy while Mr. Sprout was still Governor. He was urged by some of his advisers to resign as Governor and let himself be appointed Senator. But he refused to get into any such mess, and appointed George Wharton Pepper, who has since been regularly elected.

Pennsylvania politics feels reasonably certain that if some situation arose which would decently and honorably remove Mr. Pepper from the office of Senator, Mr. Sprout would be a candidate to succeed him. This feeling may or may not be justified by the aspirations and inclinations of the two men, but it nevertheless exists and must always be taken into account by those who are observing the national aspects of Pennsylvania politics.

That this situation should be brought into the foreground as a result of the death of President Harding is inevitable. It comes most directly in connection with Attorney-General Daugherty. Mr. Daugherty was a close personal friend and political mentor of President Harding. In the days when he was first appointed and the appointment was being objected to from some sources, the personal relation of the two men was regarded as an iron-clad guarantee Mr. Daugherty would retain his post. Later he became ill and has recently been a very sick man. Again it was said that the personal bond between him and President Harding was the only thing that kept him from resigning and withdrawing from public life.

Now that President Harding is dead, it is quite generally believed that Mr. Daugherty will not continue as Attorney-General longer than is necessary to help President Coolidge during his first months in office. In that event, of course, there will be a new Attorney-General.

They are already gossiping about Senator Pepper for the post. He is a brilliant lawyer of national reputation and has been politically friendly with Mr. Coolidge and the Republican party leaders.

Mr. Pepper has done nothing to substantiate this gossip. What he has said has rather tended away from its acceptance as fact value than toward it. It is by no means certain that he would relish giving up his seat in the Senate to enter the Coolidge cabinet as Attorney-General.

It is only a possibility if it deserves to be rated even that high, but it has its place among the speculations of our little group of political philosophers. If Mr. Pepper should go into the cabinet, thus creating a vacancy in the Senate, a most interesting political contest would be precipitated in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Sprout's ambition would presumably be brought to the front. There might well be others who would contest it. An appointment would have to be made by Governor Pinchot. Would Governor Pinchot appoint Mr. Sprout? If he did not, would Mr. Sprout oppose whomever he did appoint at the election that would have to be held in the first even-numbered year after the vacancy occurred, in other words, next November?

Have You Money To Invest?

Our Bond Department is conversant with the investment situation. It is in touch with the financial centers and knows the issues that are being offered.

It has purchased for the bank some of these bonds. It offers to customers only such securities as the bank would purchase for itself.

If you wish to make an investment we shall be glad to give you information from our files.

We shall appreciate an opportunity to suggest a list of bonds if you will call at the bank or write us.

ber, if we are to bear specifically on the present question.

Mr. Sprout himself evinces no more excitement over the situation than does Mr. Pepper. In fact, he is planning to move himself from the scene altogether. For several weeks he has had passage for Europe engaged and is scheduled to sail within a few days. The dramatic events at Washington have made no difference in his plans and he will sail as per arrangements. So for the present we might as well let him take this particular problem out to sea with him and let it sink below the horizon as soon as his ship does.

In these paragraphs last week we conferred together over gossip of difficulties the Pinchot administration was having with some of the department heads at Harrisburg. It did not look when those words were written as though that situation would come to public notice within a week. Yet such has been the case. The department head involved is not the one whose case was discussed in some detail, but another.

It is Dr. Charles H. Miner, Secretary of Health, who has happened to "break" the story of difficulties within the administration.

Early in the week Governor Pinchot went into the department and found four clerks at work, others present but not laboring in the vineyard, and still others not yet arrived to report for duty. Although it was then fifteen minutes after the hour set for the department to begin business for the day, the Governor caused this fact to be known through the channels of the press. A day or two later Dr. Miner caused another fact to be known through the channels of the press. This fact was that he did not approve of the Governor's visit and the Governor's having let the facts of his visit be known through the channels of the press. Although he would not discuss the matter, it became known that he was considering the step of handing in his resignation.

The matter of the Governor's visit is not the one at the bottom of this affair. Dr. Miner is one of the department heads who has figured in the gossip that was recounted in these paragraphs last week.

As long as the situation is what it is, we may be with propriety a little more specific in regard to him than would have been fair in the remarks of a week ago. Information which has been fair at that time was to the effect that Dr. Miner was in my hands at that time was to the effect that Dr. Miner has not been satisfied with the conditions that have surrounded his administration of the Health Department for some time.

He recently summed up his feeling when he said to a medical colleague, "I haven't the same chance to make a record that my predecessors had." The trouble goes to the same source that is making difficulties in other departments, an interference with personnel and freedom of decision by the Governor, often inspired by one or another of his most intimate advisers.

That sort of thing, if it exists at all, is apt to be widespread and therefore, if your department heads are not mere political hangers-on, satisfied to draw their salaries and let someone else run their work, it is bound to come to a head sooner or later. In this instance, the sooner it does, the better. For then it will be corrected, a new dispensation obtained, and everyone live happily thereafter.

As far as the great battle of the code is concerned, the week started promptly with action. On Monday Attorney-General Woodruff entered his mandamus suit against State Treasurer Snyder in the Dauphin County Court. The action is to compel Snyder to return the payroll requisitions he has held up to the Auditor-General. If that is done, under the Act of 1911, the Governor can act as umpire between Mr. Lewis, who has approved them, and Mr. Snyder, who has not. The Governor would cast his vote in their favor and then they would have to be paid.

The suit was entered Monday but Wednesday came and Mr. Snyder returned to his home in Pottsville without having been served. The Attorney-General intimated he was not pleased with the Sheriff's delay in serving the papers and would take steps to hasten action.

But the papers will doubtless be returned shortly and argument heard next week. Mr. Snyder has retained an imposing array of counsel, including ex-Lieutenant Governor Beidleman, and once the case gets into the courts it will probably have a long history, perhaps leading up to the Supreme Court for final adjudication. In the meantime the Governor has borrowed money to pay the salary-less employees. So why should anybody worry?

Man, Look at the Way It's BUILT

Why have thousands of families chosen Jewett Six Sedan? More car for the money—that's why! Marvelous performance—that's why! A six at the price of a four—that's why!

Jewett Six Sedan is the sturdiest car of its class or price, whether four or six. All metal body—no flimsy makeshifts to disappoint you later. Husky 6-inch deep frame, strongly braced. Paige-Timken axle fronts and rear. Match such construction anywhere for $1495. You can't.

A big, full 50 H.P. Paige-built motor fills the hood—249 cubic inches piston displacement. This means Jewett Sedan is the "Closed Car with Open Car performance." No wonder Jewett's power attracts buyers. Match, if you can, Jewett's "pep" at $1495—or $2000!

No better oiling system in ANY car—and Jewett's high pressure, hollow crank-shaft oiling gives double usual motor life. Two gallons of oil per minute are forced through all main and connecting rod bearings. This gives you at $1495 a sedan that will endure with the best.

As a final test—let your wife or daughter drive. Watch a woman put the Jewett Sedan through its paces. Watch her smile at her unaccustomed ease of mastery. And think—only $1495, f.o.b. factory!

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet on Monday evening, August 13th, in the Legion rooms. A large attendance is expected as arrangements will be completed for holding the lawn party at the residence of Mrs. Dan Irvin, River street on Wednesday evening, August 22nd.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hudson, accompanied by her son, William Hudson, came down from Olean, Thursday afternoon for a visit with her parents, Lew J. and Mrs. LaPorte. The lad will remain with his grandparents and attend the winter session of public school.

Harry Kittleberger and family who started almost a week ago for an auto trip through the eastern part of the state, have returned home well pleased with their outing. The Hicksville band of Altoona has been secured and will furnish music and fun at Curwensville on Labor Day. Negotiations are pending for the presence of several other good bands to be on the grounds that day, one of which will be possibly the girls' cornet band of Cherry Tree or the Wetzel girls' band of Milesburg.

Jack Gray, a mine superintendent, who is educated up to his profession now located at Carnwath, was a Curwensville visitor (where he formerly resided), several days this week.

Arrangements have been perfected by which there will be another big Yellow Dog meeting on Monday evening, at which time a large class of mongrels will be initiated into dogdom and assigned an active part to be taken by them for further advancing the success of the big and interesting program to be pulled off at the Park on Labor Day.

Curwensville will have almost a week of Chautauqua, commencing Monday, Sept. 2nd.

John Gose and Others of Committee on Aeronautics Invent Fireproof Gasoline Tank.

Having lost his right leg and suffered severe injuries caused by a burning airplane in the World War, John Henry Gose of Washington, D. C., a member of the American Legion's national committee on aeronautics, with other aviators, who had received similar injuries, set to work to devise a system to eliminate for others the dangers that caused their own injuries.

The result was the invention of a fireproof gasoline tank, containing a fire-resisting chemical which extinguishes any fire that may start from a leak in the gasoline tank system. Another flask containing acid is installed over the engine of the airplane. This flask releases its acid as soon as a certain temperature has been reached. The invention is built in much the same manner as a time bomb is constructed.

Mr. Gose entered the service at Fort Meyer, Virginia. He served for a time in a battery of field artillery until he obtained a transfer to the aviation service. He received training with the Canadian Royal Flying Corps at Toronto, and completed his course at Hicks, Tex. Commissioned a first lieutenant, he went overseas with the Twenty-second aero squadron. Later he was detached for service with the British Royal Flying Corps. It was while he was with the British that he suffered the accident.

Flying at an altitude of between 500 and 600 feet, a sheet of flame shot from underneath the front gasoline tank of his plane. Lieutenant Gose immediately put the machine into a sid-slip to put the flames out, and also to make a landing. The plane crashed on one wing and the pilot was pinned in the burning wreckage. Struggling to get free from the blazing plane, he broke both legs in the attempt. Meanwhile the fire was burning around his legs and body. Eventually, comrades, risking their lives, succeeded in pulling the lieutenant from the plane. What was left of his right leg had to be amputated.

"My one thought during the 19 months I was in the hospital was to find a fire-prevention equipment that would save other flyers from my own experience," Lieutenant Gose stated. An organizer of the American Legion post at Bristol, Va., Lieutenant Gose has been connected with this service organization since the early days of its existence.

WOODLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heberling and son Jack, Mrs. Heberling and Mrs. Clara Stewart of Tyrone, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Elisha Davis and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis of the Knobb Farm, near Grampian; Mrs. Hoyt and two daughters of Springfield, Mass., Wm. Brown and family, Miss Salome Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Stevens of Clearfield, were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Palmer.

Miss Margaret Bald left Saturday for Baltimore where she will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuessley, of St. Mary's were guests on Sunday at the home of N. G. Stewart.

Mrs. John E. Wiser and daughter, Esther and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wiser are sitting friends in Pittsburgh this week.

Rev. J. F. Strayer, formerly a pastor of the Woodland U. B. church and family of Latrobe, were visitors here last week.

The new road from Woodland to the Pleasant Valley church was opened to traffic on Wednesday morning.

Misses Kathryn Pearce and Cecilia Baker represented the M. E. S. S. at the convention held at Bigler on Thursday. J. V. Knepp of the U. B. church was also in attendance.

Toxin-Antitoxin To Be Administered Free at Baby Clinic.

The Bureau of Child Health of the State Health Department is now prepared to immunize against diphtheria all children between the ages of six months and six years whose parents desire it.

The immunizing agent is known as "toxin-antitoxin". It is given in three weekly doses and produces no sore or sickness, nor does it leave any disfiguring scar.

The hours and place where this work can be done free in this district are Tuesday, 2 to 4 p. m. in Well Baby Clinic room, Sommersville & Co. store.

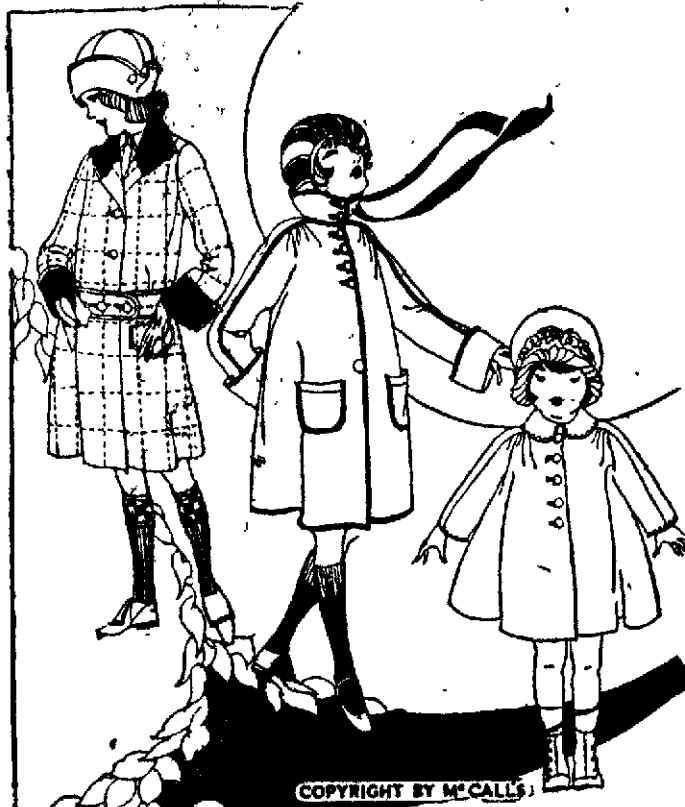

This is a great opportunity, and parents are advised to take advantage of it. Medical authorities say that the use of this new toxin will prevent a person from ever contracting the dreaded diphtheria.

This Century Plant.
The report that a century plant blooms only once in a hundred years is probably due to the impatience of some of its admirers. In some parts of South America where it grows wild it blooms once in eight years, but when it has been transplanted into greenhouses under artificial conditions its blooming date is much prolonged.

MRS. LINDQUIST TELLS WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

What Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Her

Kansas City, Mo. — "I was left in a very nervous condition after childbirth and no one could ever be my better. Then I read the 'Change of Life' and I was not prepared for what I had to suffer. I had to go to bed at midnight and I could not even sleep down to bed. I did not realize any pain, but I was decidedly nervous and could not sleep. For nearly two years I was in this way, and the doctor was frank enough to tell me that he could do no more for me. Shortly after this I happened to see in a newspaper an advertisement of Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound. In a few days the medicine was in the house and I had begun to use it and I took it regularly until I was well. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to all women when I have the opportunity." — Mrs. MAY LINDQUIST, 2514 Independence Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

WEST MARKET STREET STORE CHANGES HANDS

Thomas T. Beahan, who has been connected with Beahan's store almost from its start in Clearfield, has purchased the business of Fred B. Ford in the Hoffman building on West Market street, near the R. & P. station and has already taken charge of same. Mr. Ford has built up a successful grocery and confectionary business at this stand during the past year and retires to take up another line of work.

Mr. Beahan is a thorough-going business man, knowing every angle of the grocery game and should and no doubt will make a success of his new venture.

LOCAL HORSE SHOE MEN
OFF TO CORRY

The outcome of the second game with Corry on their courts is very much in the balance. Late Thursday afternoon a wire was received asking a postponement but the date had been theirs and careful arrangements had been made here to meet it in four different plants. An immediate return wire asked that on account of the lateness of the notice the original plans could be carried out. The men had left before the Corry answer saying that Saturday was totally impossible was received. The men are Smith, Flint, Hudson and Johnson. There was nothing to do but tell Corry that the men were on their way.

Miss Margaret Littman and brother Bernard, have returned home after spending a few months with their grandparents at Washington, D. C. Miss Safome E. Welch, of Butler, is spending some time with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Welch on Bridge street.

PLAYGROUND BASEBALL

A very important managers meeting sat yesterday morning on some matters that have come up in the baseball game. The decisions are as follows and will probably hold till the end of the season, Aug. 30:

1. The age limit is raised to 16.
2. The East End-Reedsville game of Wednesday will be played over at a date on which the two managers agree and on neutral ground.
3. The 50-foot diamond is still good but all teams should have their base lines marked before the visiting team arrives.

The following is the schedule and all players should cut it out so there will be no confusion as to dates and places.

Monday, Aug. 20: Witmer to East End.

West Side at Reed street.

Monday, Aug. 27: Witmer to Reedsville; West Side to East End.

The Thursday game between West Side and Witmer was very much in Witmer's favor. The other three teams in the league will have to unite against First Ward and beat them a few if the cup is to land anywhere but in the middle of town. Witmer has won every game so far simply because there are plenty of boys who are interested in the standing of their playground, not because of any lack of baseball material in the other wards. For instance, a player on a team that needs men badly refused to do his bit even if paid for it.

 RECORD RUN OF THREE HUNDRED YEARS

One good way to judge a play is by the number of times it has been played. If audiences enjoy it, they recommend it to their friends and so it plays night after night making new friends all the time. Consequently, when we see a play advertised as having played "300 times in New York" or "200 times in Chicago," we know that it is pretty likely to be an entertaining play.

What shall we say, then, of a play that has run not for 300 performances only, but for 300 years? Surely that indicates, absolutely, that it is an entertaining play!

"The Taming of the Shrew" made its audience roar with laughter when it was first produced at the Globe Theatre, in London, more than 300 years ago, by William Shakespeare, the most popular playwright of his day. Since then it has been played all over the world. It has been translated into nearly all languages, has been enjoyed by literally millions of people in every quarter of the globe, and today is just as entertaining and just as funny as it was the day it was written.

Its author has been pronounced not only the "most popular playwright of his day," but the greatest poet and dramatist of all times. He knew what would make his audience weep, as his great tragedies will testify; but he knew equally well what would make his audiences laugh, and no play bears stronger witness of this than the hilarious story of "The Taming of the Shrew."

There is also a rollicking, romantic element to the story in the flight of Bianca, the pretty younger sister, whose father will not let her marry until her elder sister, the ill-tempered Katharine, has found a husband. The efforts of Bianca's suitors to find some man brave enough to marry Katharine; their meeting with the swaggering, adventure-loving, Petruchio, and his boast that he will marry Katharine and make a model wife of her; the way he carries out his boast; and the fight among Bianca's lovers as to which one shall marry her after her sister is safely out of the way, make up a play that is comedy and romance from beginning to end.

When the play is given here, as a part of the Chautauqua program, the role of Katharine will be played by Miss Olive Oliver, one of the foremost Shakespearean actresses in the American theatre. The role of Petruchio will be played by Louis Leon Hall, who has been leading man with many of the famous stars, including Nat Goodwin, Robert Mantell, Walker Whitesides and Nance O'Neill. Robert Strauss will have one of the principal comedy roles and the remainder of the cast will be made up of experienced and able players. Miss Oliver, Mr. Hall, and Mr. Strauss have just closed a long season on tour with Fritz Leiber in Shakespearean repertoires.

Not Exactly.
 "Now that feuds have practically ceased in this region," said the skeptical tourist, "I presume you have, figuratively speaking, benten your pistols to pinning hooks?" "Nope!" replied Mr. Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark. "In the first place, we don't raise pinches yet, and in the second place you never know when a dead feud will be a to get up and take notice."—Kansas City Star.

OWENS-WALTHER

Elmer S. Owens, one of Lawrence Township's popular young men and Miss Leah Walther, of Clearfield, were united in marriage on Wednesday evening, Aug. 8, 1923, at 9:00 o'clock at the Methodist parsonage, in Curwensville, the pastor Rev. J. C. Collins officiating. They were attended by the brother and sister of the bride, Miss Irene Walther and Coe Walther.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Walther, of West Side Clearfield, employed for five years in the grocery store of Walker & Lov, where she was held in high regard.

The bride groom saw service in the World War, and for some time has been in the employ of the Paterson Fire Brick Works. Both have a host of friends, whose best wishes will accompany them on their journey thru life.

The young couple left on Thursday morning for a short auto trip. On their return they will take up house-keeping on Clearfield street where a home awaits them.
